Hemenway Rites Held

ARLINGTON — Funeral services were planned for this afternoon for H. Harrison Hemenway, 47, a Central Intelligence Agency official who died of cancer yesterday at George Washington University Hospital.

He lived at 5022 S. Chesterfield Rd., Arlington.

Mr. Hemenway was born Jan. 1, 1914, at Marcus, Wash., a community which has since been submerged in an artificial lake. He attended the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis and graduated from Macalester College in St. Paul, Minn., then entered government service in 1940.

Mr. Hemenway came to Arlington when he joined the CIA in 1951 after serving in Europe for several years with the Economic Cooperation Administration.

He was active in Boy Scout work here and served as president of the Peyton-Randolph Parent-Teachers Association during the 1959-60 school year.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ruth T. Hemenway; two sons, Paul, 15, and Carl, 9; his mother, Mrs. Laura Hemenway of St. Petersburg, Fla., and a sister, Mrs. Evangeline Roberts, Austin, Minn.

Services were set for 2 p. m. today at the Ives Funeral Home, with interment to follow at National Memorial Park.
